V13N11

November 2015

Welcome to the V13N11 November 2015 issue of the Awareness Watch™ Newsletter. This newsletter is available as a complimentary subscription and is issued monthly. Each newsletter will feature the following:

Awareness Watch™ Featured Report

Awareness Watch™ Spotters

Awareness Watch™ Book/Paper/Article Review

Subject Tracer™ Information Blogs

I am always open to feedback from readers so please feel free to email with all suggestions, reviews and new resources that you feel would be appropriate for inclusion in an upcoming issue of Awareness Watch™. This is an ongoing work of creativity and you will be observing constant changes, constant updates knowing that “change” is the only thing that will remain constant!!

Awareness Watch™ Featured Report

This month’s feature covers my Healthcare Online Resources 2016. Searching the Internet for healthcare resources is now as common place as driving the car and most people consider the use of just one search engine to obtain results that they are looking for. This paper is designed to open your eyes to the many other excellent healthcare resources on the Internet to search for information and/or to discover new knowledge! This paper will show you a number of ways to search for healthcare information on the Internet and methods to continue your healthcare searches and knowledge discovery. This paper is designed for both the “newbie” to the Internet and for the Internaut who will take advantage of new search engines and directory resources not in their database! This paper covers healthcare search engines and bots as well as healthcare directories, indexes and subject tracers.

Healthcare Online Resources 2016 is a comprehensive listing of healthcare resources currently available on the Internet. These include healthcare indexes, subject guides and search engines that supply the latest technology and information about healthcare and how it relates to you. The below list of sources is taken from my Subject Tracer™ Information Blog titled Healthcare Resources and is constantly updated with Subject Tracer™ bots at the following URL:

<http://www.HealthcareResources.info/>

These resources and sources will help you to discover the many pathways available to you through the Internet to find the latest healthcare sources and sites.

The Blue Brain Project

<http://bluebrain.epfl.ch>

The Lausanne, Switzerland-based Blue Brain Project has been building a virtual brain in a supercomputer for over a decade. And while the task seems almost Sisyphean - simulating a single neuron takes approximately the computing power of a laptop - they have made tremendous strides. Readers may like to begin with the In Brief tab, which provides an overview, timeline, and glossary for the project. Next, the Science tab harbors a great deal of interesting insights, especially under the Results and Insights section (which can be located in the Publications subsection). Here readers may read summaries of research, such as Perin, Berger, and Markram's 2011 paper, "A Synaptic Organizing Principle for Cortical Neuronal Groups," which was published in the Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences. RANDOM.ORG

<https://www.random.org/>

Created by Dr. Mads Haahr of the School of Computer Sciences and Statistics at Trinity College, Dublin, RANDOM.ORG has generated over two trillion truly random bits in its nearly two decade history. As the site notes, "true" randomness is not as easy to come by as one might think. In fact, most computers generate pseudo-random numbers using mathematical formulae. RANDOM.ORG, on the other hand, uses atmospheric noise to generate truly random numbers for anything from lottery drawings to coin flips to card shuffles. Many of the services on the website are free, though readers may also use the Third-Party Draw Service for a small fee. Readers may also like to explore the Learn About Randomness section, where they can learn about the history of randomness, read testimonials, and peruse quotations. Voxeet - Group Conferencing Redefined

<http://www.voxeet.com/>

Voxeet is redefining the world of conferencing with refreshingly simple calls and exceptionally clear sound. Frustrated by choppy, staticky conference calls that made meetings confusing and ineffective, Voxeet's founders determined that excellent sound is essential to collaboration—and that everyone deserves to experience it. They felt so strongly about delivering excellent sound, in fact, that they built the Latin word for voice—vox—right into the name of their company. The result is a conferencing solution that lets you hear every word and always know who's talking. Pairing this unparalleled sound quality with a straightforward setup and a seamless mobile experience, Voxeet makes it easy to connect and collaborate on any device, anywhere. Canva - Amazingly Simple Graphic Design

<https://www.canva.com/>

Design shouldn't be hard but somewhere along the way we became bogged down with expensive, complicated software that put design out of reach for most people. Canva is here to change that, with a tool that makes design simple for everyone. Canva gives you everything you need to easily turn ideas into stunning designs. Create designs for Web or print: blog graphics, presentations, Facebook covers, flyers, posters, invitations and so much more. Search and drag to create beautiful designs without ever leaving the Web. Canva takes care of the boring bits so you can spend more time creating. Start with a custom layout or a blank page. With all the tools in one place, there's nothing holding you back. It's online and free to use. Simply search for the best graphics, photos, and fonts, or upload your own, then use Canva's drag and drop tool to create a design. Design with hundreds of free elements and fonts, or choose from our library of more than 1 million premium images for $1. Take your photos to the next level with Canva's stunning photo editor. Photo editing has never been simpler. Present a consistent look and feel on social media and in your marketing materials. With Canva you can edit your photos using preset filters or get advanced with photo editing tools like brightness, contrast, saturation, tint, blur, x-process and vignette. With more than six quadrillion options, you'll never be stuck for choice. Canva makes it easy to work with others, letting you share and edit your designs with family, friends and coworkers. Professional designers can easily collaborate with clients. Never worry about frustrating back and forth emails again. Canva also plays nice with traditional desktop design software. GrantSpace

<http://grantspace.org/>

For anyone engaged in the world of education, research, or nonprofits, grant writing can be a fact of daily life. However, becoming a powerful and effective grant writer is a continually evolving process, requiring timely information and the latest in techniques and inspirations. GrantSpace, with its array of "easy-to-use, self-service tools and resources," can be an excellent support for both experienced and apprentice grant writers. While some of the resources on the site require a sign up, there is plenty to peruse without any commitment, including webinars, multimedia tools, and podcasts, which can mostly be found in the Training and Tools tabs, as well as a frequently updated and well-informed blog that covers the latest in the wide world of grant writing. Hulbee - Intelligent Answer Engine

<https://hulbee.com/>

Hulbee.com is the first intelligent answer engine because it is based on semantic information recognition and offers users intuitive help in their search for answers. Hulbee.com is the efficient alternative for anyone who attaches great importance to data integrity and the protection of privacy. Contrary to search engines, users at Hulbee.com don't leave any tracks. Hulbee.com even does without countless analyses of their visitors. Their topics, IP addresses and personal information, are not stored or used for any additional business. All the servers are located in Switzerland and neither the US nor other data snoopers can get their hands on this information. Intelligent Data Cloud technology helps reduce search times because answers are generated quickly and efficiently from data pools. Therefore, no thinking is required for the search, but the answers the user needs are quickly found. Hulbee.com is based on an innovative Data Cloud technology, which does not recognise the meaning by search words but rather by the correlation as regards content, and in doing so generates answers from data. Software pioneers from Switzerland, Germany and Russia worked on this semantic information recognition based on artificial intelligence for 14 years. This has been added to the tools

Job-Applications Online

<http://www.job-applications.com/>

It is the first site of its kind to provide printable job applications that allow users to apply directly to employers. They provide hundreds of printable and online applications for financial institutions, airlines, retail and department stores, pharmacies, grocery stores, and companies in many different industries. In addition, they have hundreds of unique, proprietary employee videos - they interview employees and ask them for inside tips on what it's like to work for their company, and how to get a job with their company. As far as they know, no other job site provides this kind of information. This will be added to Employment Resources Subject Tracer™.

MedStartr.com - Healthcare Crowdfunding

<http://medstartr.com/>

Healthcare is a Partner-Driven Industry where even the best ideas need the help to get found, funded, approved and adopted. MedStartr has enabled over 50 partnerships in our short tenure and we now offer Corporate Innovation Services where we will help companies meet startups halfway, crowdsourcing and crowdfunding great new ideas to solve difficult problems and bring them to global scale quickly. Drawn from the vibrant healthcare innovation community around the world, some of the most accomplished people in healthcare are getting involved with our MedStartrs. By automatically matching great mentors with great projects we find that we enable projects to take off much faster and go much higher. Before MedStartr, healthcare Crowdfunding just didn't work very

CERN Education

<http://education.web.cern.ch/education/Chapter2/Intro.html>

The European Organization for Nuclear Research (CERN, from the French), which employees over two thousand staff members and has hosted more than ten thousand fellows, associates, and apprentices, is one of the greatest international science projects in history. Educators will find a wide array of helpful resources on CERN's Teaching Resources site, including "presentations, recorded lectures, teaching materials, movies, animations, games, posters, photos, games and ideas for practical activities in the classroom." For instance, the 56-page, downloadable PDF of Jacques Deferne and Alain Gassener's lesson, "The Amazing World of Atoms," takes middle school and high school students through a colorful tour of the basics of atomic physics and chemistry. Other topics include antimatter, the Big Bang, and particle physics, as well as an introduction to accelerators. This will be added to Education and Academic Resources Subject Tracer™. Terbium Labs - Matchlight Proactive Security In an Insecure World

<https://terbiumlabs.com/>

They are a different sort of information security company. At Terbium Labs, they provide proactive solutions beginning with the assumption that your critical data is always at risk. That's why they focus on data intelligence, building systems to find your sensitive information wherever it may appear on the internet. They are an elite group of information security professionals with expertise in everything from cryptography to large-scale information systems. They protect organizations from relentless attempts to steal data for personal, monetary, or political gain. By offering continuous, proactive monitoring of critical data and rapid breach detection, they enable companies to better manage risk and keep high-value data safe. Matchlight shifts the balance of power by providing the tools to identify and rapidly counter information theft. It proactively monitors and tracks down your stolen data, giving you the ability to find and challenge threats before the damage spreads. Matchlight scans the dark web and deep web, including the largest marketplaces and forums, for stolen data and compromised information. If even a small trace of your data appears somewhere unexpected, Matchlight notifies you immediately and automatically so you can identify the breach and quickly recover. Through an innovative method, Matchlight creates privacy-protected digital fingerprints of your data. Even partial copies of data, as small as a single credit

Encryptr - Free Open Source Password Manager and eWallet - Zero-Knowledge, Cloud-Based and Private

<https://encryptr.org/>

Encryptr is simple and easy to use. It stores your sensitive data like passwords, credit card data, PINs, or access codes, in the cloud. However, because it was built on the zero-knowledge Crypton framework, Encryptr ensures that only the user has the ability to access or read the confidential information. Not the app's developers, cloud storage provider, or any third party. Encryptr only ever encrypts or decrypts your data locally on your device. No plain text is ever sent to the server, not even your passphrase. This is what zero-knowledge means. You don't even need to hand over any personal data to register. Not your name, and not your email address. The app only requires a username and a passphrase. Encryptr is free, and completely open source. This includes Crypton. Being cross-platform, it allows users to securely access their confidential data from a single account from the cloud, no matter where they are. It's currently available for Android, Windows, Linux, or Mac OS X. This will be added to Privacy Resources Subject Tracer™. This will be added to Entrepreneurial Resources Subject Tracer™. Free Code Camp

<http://www.freecodecamp.com/>

Completing Free Code Camp is no easy task. In fact, students log over 1,600 coding hours by the time they complete all the classes, tasks, and projects that the site employs. The upswing, however, can be significant, as the site promises that committed users will: learn full stack JavaScript; build a portfolio of real apps that real people are using; and, hopefully, get a coding job. Users begin by taking 200 hours of online lessons. Next, they log 200 hours of JavaScript Algorithm practice, then work on 200 hours of front end web development, followed by 200 hours of full stack web development practice. Camp is then rounded out by 800 hours of real-world web development work for participating non-profits. Along the way, users connect with other "campers," and learn applicable skills. An email address or social media account (e.g. Facebook, Twitter, etc.) is needed to create an account, but the site is well-organized, user-friendly, and, best of all, free. This will be added to Script Resources Subject Tracer™.

AnyAPI

<https://any-api.com/>

AnyAPI is a curator of over 100 APIs from around the web. AnyAPI uses LucyBot's API consoles to allow users to try the APIs in their database. This creates an experience that's both informative and interactive. To give a clearer picture of what each API can do, AnyAPI also uses LucyBot to add a visual layer to their most-used APIs. Chiefs of State and Cabinet Members of Foreign Governments

<https://www.cia.gov/library/publications/resources/world-leaders-1/>

Updated weekly, the Central Intelligence Agency's Chiefs of State and Cabinet Members of Foreign Governments online directory is a phenomenal window into the workings of governments around the world. Governments are listed within the directory in alphabetical order and are easy to browse. For example, if a reader was interested in the government of Mali, she would select M from the alphabetical list on the landing page, and then select Mali. From there, a list of Mali's offices and ministries appears, including the President, Prime Minister, and the Ministers of Commerce & Industry, Culture, Handicrafts, & Tourism, National Reconciliation, and many others. DataWallet - Connect, Get Paid, Enjoy

<https://www.datawallet.io/>

Data is everywhere. With every little Like on Facebook, any picture we take, and any song we listen to on our smartphone or computer, we create data. We create roughly 5GB of data each day. Next year, we'll create about 6.5GB. It sounds unbelievable, but 90% of all data that ever existed was created in the past 2 years. But even though we create this data on a daily basis, we don't seem to own it. Firms called Data Brokers collect whatever data they can get their hands on behind our backs, put them into profiles, and sell them. We don't know who is sourcing what part of our data, who buys it and for what purpose. Also we are not included in the value chain and paid for the data we create. More than $300 billion is spent each year on personal data. Data Brokers should not control what happens to our data. Data Brokers should not exclude us from seeing how our data is being used. And most importantly, Data Brokers should not pocket the money that companies pay for OUR data. This is why they built DataWallet. With their platform, they put you in charge of your data. They give you full control to decide who gets to buy your data, what data they get to buy, and most importantly, they make sure that 100% of the money paid for your data is paid out to no one else than you. LaunchRock - A Site builder Dedicated To Early Customer Acquisition

<https://www.launchrock.com/>

Entrepreneurs create over 6 million new businesses each year in the United States, but millions more sit as ideas in a sketchbook or notes from a meeting that and never see the light of day. They have set out to change that by creating a platform that enables people to get over the hump and start. Beyond that, they help them get on the path to early success. Here are the three things that make Launchrock a company you can trust to help guide you along the way: a) Hands-On Service - Their team takes a very hands-on approach to help companies understand the process of launching a business and getting traction. From page creation to marketing, they are there at each step; b) Founder Friendly - Launchrock is owned and operated by a team that has launched dozens of startups over the past 20 years. They understand the challenges you face as you create a business, and they are happy to offer their personal expertise to all entrepreneurs; and c) They Love What They Do - They view themselves as some of the luckiest people on Earth. They get to see thousands of ideas and businesses at all stages have success in launching and build a strong base of users that eventually become lifelong customers. ReplyAll - Conversations As Content

<https://www.replyall.me/>

Conversations make better content because they bring together multiple voices and perspectives. Ideas are examined, assumptions challenged. You can enjoy a conversation and not agree with every participant. At ReplyAll, they believe that the very best conversations are created when participation is by invitation only, when the audience can follow along as its created and when the conversation is allowed to develop at its own pace. So, they built ReplyAll to make it easy for you to host experts and interesting people for interviews, debates and fireside chats. They were inspired by the published email exchanges of Bill Simmons & Malcolm Gladwell and Sam Harris & Glenn Greenwald and they decided to make it easier to create this type of content in a way where readers can follow along as the conversation unfolds on your site. It's just you and your guest emailing back and forth as the world watches. They have built ReplyAll for you, the content creator. And they invite you to join us in our mission to paint the Web with #greatconversations. This will be added to Entrepreneurial Resources Subject Tracer™. Docady - Always Ready For Life's Unexpected Moments

<http://www.docady.com/>

Have you ever had a close call with an expiring car insurance or even a passport? Have you ever needed to show your ID but forgot your wallet? And perhaps only your spouse knows where that one important document might be? We can't avoid unexpected moments, but with Docady, we can dodge potential frustration. They call these "Docady Moments" – when you find yourself unprepared for a bureaucratic scenario, and their app is the hero. By utilizing their unique smart scanning technology, Docady discovers, imports, and securely manages documents that matter most. Your files are stored in a secure cloud-based server that acts as your own personal assistant. Docady captures essential document details, transforms them into actionable items, while enabling seamless/customized sharing. This way, users are ultimately prepared. Awarenesswatch™ Paper Review

Following the Joneses: FOMO and Conspicuous Sociality by Joseph Reagle
<http://firstmonday.org/ojs/index.php/fm/article/view/6064>

Abstract:

I argue that the proliferation of the term FOMO (Fear of Missing Out) and its siblings (FOBO, FODA, MOMO, FODO) can be understood as envy-related anxiety about missed experiences (fear of missing out) and belonging (fear of being left out). Beyond feelings, people who speak of FOMO also speak of it as a behavior, most often as a compulsivity (related to what I characterize as conspicuous sociality) and as an illness to be remedied. And although FOMO is often seen as a recent phenomenon, I argue it is a continuation of a centuries-old concern and discourse about media-prompted envy and anxiety (i.e., “keeping up with the Joneses” and neurasthenia).
