V18N2

February 2020

Welcome to the V18N2 February 2020 issue of the Awareness Watch™ Newsletter. This newsletter is available as a complimentary subscription and will be issued monthly. Each newsletter will feature the following:

Awareness Watch™ Featured Report
Awareness Watch™ Spotters
Awareness Watch™ Book/Paper/Article Review
Subject Tracer™ Information Blogs

I am always open to feedback from readers so please feel free to email with all suggestions, reviews and new resources that you feel would be appropriate for inclusion in an upcoming issue of Awareness Watch™. This is an ongoing work of creativity and you will be observing constant changes, constant updates knowing that “change” is the only thing that will remain constant!!

Awareness Watch™ Featured Report

This month’s featured report covers Privacy Resources 2020 and is a comprehensive listing of privacy resources, tools and alerts including search engines, directories, subject guides and index resources and sites on the Internet available for the 2020 year. The below list of the privacy sources is taken partially from my Subject Tracer™ white paper titled Privacy Resources 2020 and is constantly updated with Subject Tracer™ bots at the following URL:

<http://PrivacyResources.info/>

These resources and sources will help you to discover the many new pathways available through the Internet to find the latest new and existing privacy research, resources, sources, tools and sites. As this site is constantly updated it would be to your benefit to bookmark and return to the above URL frequently. The true way to search the Internet and social media for new privacy resources, sources and tools is to use the below listed tools and resources and include the deep web. These resources will be your pathfinder to all the important and ever changing 2020 new economy resources, tools and alerts!! Just completely updated with new links and all links validated.

Pew Report: In Emerging Economies, Smartphone and Social Media Users Have Broader Social Networks

<https://www.pewinternet.org/2019/08/22/in-emerging-economies-smartphone-and-social-media-users-have-broader-social-networks>

"Are smartphones and social media changing social interactions in emerging economies, or are people simply talking to the same people online that they once talked to offline?" This is the question examined by the Pew Research Center in this report published in August 2019. The report is based on data gathered via surveys and focus groups conducted in 2018 with adult participants in 11 countries. Chosen to represent emerging economies across four global regions, these countries include Lebanon, Vietnam, Colombia, and Kenya. Among the study's major findings, smartphone and social media users in these emerging economies tend to be more likely to interact regularly with people who are different from them in key demographic areas such as religion, income level, political party, and race or ethnicity. In addition to social activities, the report also delves into trends in other ways participants use mobile phones, such as looking up health information or applying to jobs. Those interested can read the full report online or download it as a 35-page PDF at the link above, where they will also find the report's topline questionnaire results. This report was written by Laura Silver and Christine Huang with additional analysis by Kyle Taylor. This will be added to Business Intelligence Resources Subject Tracer™. Overheard at National Geographic

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/podcasts/overheard>

Readers interested in getting an inside peek into the research behind some of National Geographic's explorations may enjoy their podcast Overheard. Launched in June 2019 and currently in its second season, this podcast features engaging stories from "the explorers, photographers and scientists at the edges of our big, bizarre, and beautiful world." For example, in "Cave of the Jaguar God," Guillermo de Anda, an archaeologist and researcher with Mexico's National Institute of Anthropology and History, shares what it was like to enter an extraordinary cave used by the Maya that had been untouched for centuries. Another episode, "March of the Beaver," takes listeners to the Alaskan tundra, where beavers are playing a surprising role in the northward shift of larger species

TalentMS - Cloud LMS Software To Train Employees, Partners and Customers <https://www.talentlms.com/>

A super-easy, cloud LMS software to train your employees, partners and customers. Features include: a) Establish Consistent Training: Say goodbye to shared docs, untracked emails and outdated information. With one central training hub, everyone gets the exact same onboarding and knowledge; b) No Technical Skills Needed: With presentations, videos and other online material you already have, you can create winning courses. And, you don't need a dedicated team of experts to do so; c) Make It Completely Yours: White-label your Learning Management System (LMS) with your custom domain, logo, and theme. Make it look the way you want for a straightforward learner experience; d) Trust That Users Will Love It: If it's not easy or accessible, they won't use it. The TalentLMS platform is simple and comes with native mobile apps for iOS & Android. So, your people can train anytime, anywhere; e) Never Fight Your LMS Platform: As a cloud LMS, TalentLMS won't let you down. There's no need to install or back up anything, cause it automatically does it for you; f) Reports You Want For Data You Need: Make better decisions, keep stakeholders informed with clear and visual reports about everything that happens inside your eLearning hub; g) Grows As You Grow: TalentLMS is an enterprise-friendly LMS platform, too. With features like multitenancy and Single Sign-On (SSO), it will scale as your training audience grows; h) Complete and Powerful: Support for SCORM & xAPI, notifications, course selling, video-conferencing, gamification, extensible user profiles etc. Everything you need is here; and i) Easy To Maintain: Built with a preference for conventions over configurations. This means fewer things to configure, more time to deliver great online training. This will be added to Business Intelligence Resources Subject Tracer™. Draftes - Where Text Starts

<https://getdrafts.com/>

Drafts works as follows: a) CAPTURE EVERYWHERE: Drafts opens to a new page with the keyboard ready so you can type immediately. Go hands-free with Dictation, or ask Siri to “Create a note using Drafts”. Drafts lets you get things down before you forget – no choosing document templates or waiting for your file to download; b) USE YOUR WORDS: Drafts is a launching-off point for text – use the actions to copy it, share it, or deep link into other apps and services. Compose a tweet or message, create a file in Dropbox, send a task off to Reminders – there are hooks into tons of your favorite apps; c) REMEMBER IT NOW – OR LATER: New entries go into the Inbox. Once there, you can Tag them for organization, Flag them for importance, or Archive them for long-term storage; and d) TAKE TEXT TO A NEW LEVEL: Set up a text editing experience that’s perfect for you, with tons of interface adjustments like custom fonts and control over spacing, line height, and margins. Use the customizable extended row above the keyboard to quickly convert, manipulate, and transform your writing. Make lists, use Markdown to get things just right. Fleeq - Revolutionize Video Communication in the Workplace

<https://www.fleeq.io/>

Create bite-size training videos in minutes! Track, embed, optimize, localize and share them in seconds. Take a screenshot, point and click to a specific section, add a description, follow that again and again, and automatically this turns into a live interactive video. Take your training videos to the next level with custom or multi-lingual auto narration, different vocals, genders, accents, and much more. No need to import/export and update on any change, you can now remotely control all your fleeqs, just go into the dashboard, adjust the contents and your changes are "Live" in production.

Magpie - Algorithmic Personalized Recommendations

<https://learn.filtered.com/magpie>

Magpie makes algorithmic personalised recommendations from your existing content and handpicked curated content to help your people build skills in the specific capabilities your organisation has prioritised. magpie is faster and more effective at delivering behaviour change than conventional, general purpose solutions such as LXPs, LMSs or content libraries. Within a few clicks magpie hits 80% relevance for the content served to each and every user, driving meaningful, worthwhile engagement. And a further 80% of those users go on to apply something they learn from magpie to their work. That allows you to deliver change programmes and business performance at pace. magpie is effective because of a unique and proprietary concept: the skills signature. We need just three pieces of information about a user to generate a user skills signature. We simultaneously tag every single asset to generate a corresponding content skills signature. By matching the two and improving that match through machine learning, magpie delivers meaningful personalisation well ahead of the market. Awarenesswatch™ Paper Review

Introduction: Ten Years of WhatsApp: The Role of Chat Apps in the Formation and Mobilization of Online Publics by Emma Baulch, Ariadna Matamoros-Fernández, Amelia Johns

Abstract

This special issue, curated by Emma Baulch, Ariadna Matamoros-Fernández, and Amelia Johns, marks the end of the first decade of WhatsApp's existence and offers a collection of essays on the importance of this technology in everyday life. Considering the rapid uptake and ubiquity of WhatsApp in places beyond the Anglophone world, including Brazil, Mexico, Malaysia, and Spain, the seven papers interrogate the opportunities and challenges that the app affords to activists and ordinary users through its main features: end-to-end encryption, groups, and the forward function.
