V8N11

November 2010

Welcome to the V8N11 November 2010 issue of the Awareness Watch™ Newsletter. This newsletter is available as a complimentary subscription and will be issued monthly. Each newsletter will feature the following:

Awareness Watch™ Featured Report
Awareness Watch™ Spotters
Awareness Watch™ Book/Paper/Article Review
Subject Tracer™ Information Blogs

I am always open to feedback from readers so please feel free to email with all suggestions, reviews and new resources that you feel would be appropriate for inclusion in an upcoming issue of Awareness Watch™. This is an ongoing work of creativity and you will be observing constant changes, constant updates knowing that “change” is the only thing that will remain constant!!

Awareness Watch™ Featured Report

This month’s featured report covers Business Intelligence Online Resources covering business intelligence for both the beginners to business intelligence research as well as advanced researchers and all available over the Internet. These tools are all available readily from the Internet and most are completely free and open source.

Flow - Lean Project Management Based on Kanban

<http://flow.io/>

Flow is a lean project management application based on kanban. Key Benefits include: a) Visualize your workflow - See what is going on at a glance: How many tasks there are in each phase, and who is working on what; b) Estimates are optional - flow's automatic time tracking measures your progress, which is a reliable indicator of your future performance; and c) Just-in-time production - Working on everything simultaneously slows you down with too many tasks in various states of completion. Finish more in less time by using Work In Progress (WIP) limits. This has been added to the tools section of Research Resources Subject Tracer™ Information Blog.

ResourceSpace - Free and Open Source Digital Asset Management (DAM)

<http://www.resourcespace.org/>

ResourceSpace is a web-based, open source digital asset management system which has been designed to give your content creators easy and fast access to print and web ready assets. Features include: 1) Your users serve themselves so your internal workload is reduced; 2) Resources are found easily and quickly; 3) You can respond faster to external resource requests; 4) It's much easier to send your resources to those that need them without using up your own bandwidth: suppliers receive links via e-mail so they can download the resources themselves directly from the system; 5) Higher quality resources are promoted so use of your best resources is encouraged; 6) A centralised and well organised repository encourages the re-use of purchased resources; 7) Only a web browser is needed - no cumbersome client software installations; 8) Collaboration is encouraged through the use of shared resource collections and searches; and 9) Discover and respond to trends by using the detailed reporting and statistics functionality. This has been added to the tools section of Research Resources Subject Tracer™ Information Blog.

Micromachines

<http://www.mdpi.com/journal/micromachines/>

Micromachines is an international, peer-reviewed open-access journal which provides an advanced forum for studies related to micro-scaled machines and micromachinery. It publishes reviews, regular research papers and short communications. Our aim is to encourage scientists to publish their experimental and theoretical results in as much detail as possible. There is no restriction on the length of the papers. The full experimental details must be provided so that the results can be reproduced.

There are, in addition, unique features of this journal:

- * manuscripts regarding research proposals and research ideas will be particularly welcomed
- * electronic files or software regarding the full details of the calculation and experimental procedure, if unable to be published in a normal way, can be deposited as supplementary material
- * manuscripts concerning summaries and surveys on research cooperation and projects (that are funded by national governments or others) to give information for a broad field of users.

Subject Areas

- * Science and technology of micromachinery
- * Miniaturization
- * Applications of micromachines
- * Microelectromechanical systems (MEMS)

Journal of Social Inclusion (JoSI)

<http://ww104.griffith.edu.au/index.php/inclusion/index>

The purpose of the Journal of Social Inclusion (JoSI) is to create and disseminate a new knowledge and understanding of the complex exclusionary processes that work to distance individuals, families, groups and communities from the societies in which they live, and the ultimate costs of these processes. JoSI provides an accessible forum for informed critical debate on the issue of social inclusion in the form of editorials, commentary, review essays, reviews and peer-reviewed scholarly articles and conference papers. It welcomes a wide range of methodological and theoretical points of departure. While its primary focus is Australia, the journal also aims to provide a broader international perspective. The journal recognises that an interdisciplinary and trans-disciplinary approach to the subject of social inclusion is desirable to optimise knowledge gathering and dissemination. Submissions will be welcomed from academic disciplines including, but certainly not limited to: human services and social work; ethics; sociology and social policy; public health; psychology; legal studies; education; criminology and criminal justice; gender studies and creative arts. Journal of Social Inclusion is available free of charge as an Open Access journal on the Internet. Abstracts available online. Articles available in PDF format.

Dukten - Worldwide Database of Barcodes and Product Descriptions

<http://www.dukten.com/>

Today almost every product we buy is identified by a unique code. The most obvious example are the bar codes printed on each product (called UPC or EAN) that we see when we go shopping at the super market, however is not the only type of code, there are other specialized codes in some niche products such as the ISBN which is used to uniquely identify any published book. It would be great if there was a kind of online "product encyclopedia" where we could see all the information related to a specific product as it could be the product name, manufacturer, specifications, description, photos, etc.. Dukten's mission is to become the universal source of product information supported by the Internet community by creating a complete and updated database which contains each product that is available for sale somewhere in the world. Any person may contribute to this task by adding or correcting the existing information. This has been added to Reference Resources Subject Tracer™ Information Blog. ### Pulse.to - Communicating by Texting to Groups of People

<http://pulse.to/>

Pulsing is a new way to communicate instantly with a group of people using texting. All of us know that emails are not checked right away. And texting groups of people from your phone can be very tedious. Pulse fixes that for you! Pulse.to was started by two avid texters trying to solve the same problem: How do you communicate with groups of people instantly using your cell phones? Optimally, this communication would be done by texting..... Pulse.to was born! After setting up a Pulse, you can easily "Pulse" messages to your group either from the site or from your phone. After launching the site, they found that their friends were using it a bunch of different ways: the weekly poker game, a sports team, or even keeping friends and family updated on the birth of a new family member. The possibilities are endless! This has been added to the tools section of Research Resources Subject Tracer™ Information Blog. ### HeadStartUp - Web Software Applications for Startups, Entrepreneurs and Small Business

<http://www.headstartup.com/>

As a group of Internet entrepreneurs (GrooveJob, DOmedia, and Sandbox Coworking are just a few of our many projects...) they obsess over the latest and greatest tools and web-based software for small business and startups. They have quite literally searched, used and evaluated thousands of web-based tools and software for small business and freelancers so you don't have to. You can easily search their site by software type (like "accounting") or you can search by name if you're looking for detailed information and reviews on a specific company. Check out their review of Basecamp for a good example of just how detailed they get with their reviews. You won't find the "Big Expensive

ClearSpending - Making Sense of the Federal Checkbook

<http://sunlightfoundation.com/clearspending/>

They have taken data from other federal reporting systems and compared it with the data found in USASpending.gov across three categories: Consistency, Completeness and Timeliness. How close are the reported dollar amounts to the yearly estimates? How many of the required fields are filled out in each record? And how long did it take the agency to report the money once it was allocated to a project? This has been added to New Economy Analytics, Resources and Alerts Subject Tracer™ Information Blog.

National Wetlands Inventory and Mapper

<http://www.fws.gov/wetlands/>

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (Service) is the principal Federal agency that provides information to the public on the extent and status of the Nation's wetlands. The agency has developed a series of topical maps to show wetlands and deepwater habitats. This geospatial information is used by Federal, State, and local agencies, academic institutions, and private industry for management, research, policy development, education and planning activities. Digital data can be viewed and downloaded through several methods. Wetlands provide a multitude of ecological, economic and social benefits. They provide habitat for fish, wildlife and a variety of plants. Wetlands are nurseries for many saltwater and freshwater fishes and shellfish of commercial and recreational importance. Wetlands are also important landscape features because they hold and slowly release flood water and snow melt, recharge groundwater, act as filters to cleanse water of impurities, recycle nutrients, and provide recreation and wildlife viewing opportunities for millions of people. ## Tourism Review International

<http://www.cognizantcommunication.com/filecabinet/Tri/tri.html>

Tourism Review International is a peer-reviewed journal that advances excellence in all fields of tourism research, promotes high-level tourism knowledge, and nourishes cultural awareness in all sectors of the tourism industry by integrating industry and academic perspectives. Its international and interdisciplinary nature ensures that the needs of those interested in tourism are served by documenting industry practices, discussing tourism management and planning issues, providing a forum for primary research and critical examinations of previous research, and by chronicling changing tourism patterns and trends at the local, regional and global scale.

Truthy - Analyzed and Visualize the Diffusion of Information on Twitter

<http://truthy.indiana.edu/>

Truthy is a system to analyze and visualize the diffusion of information on Twitter. The Truthy system evaluates thousands of tweets an hour to identify new and emerging bursts of activity around memes of various flavors. The data and statistics provided by Truthy are designed to aid in the study of social epidemics: How do memes propagate through the Twittersphere? What causes a burst of popularity? They also plan to use Truthy to detect political smears, astroturfing, misinformation, and other social pollution. While the vast majority of memes arise in a perfectly organic manner, driven by the complex mechanisms of life on the Web, some are engineered by the shady machinery of high-profile congressional campaigns. Truthy uses a sophisticated combination of text and data mining, social network analysis, and complex networks models. To train their algorithms, they leverage crowdsourcing: they rely on users like you to flag injections of forged grass-roots activity. Therefore, click on the Truthy button when you see a suspicious meme! Streaming Twitter data is acquired in real-time from the 'Gardenhose'. They match all tweets against a set of keywords to exclude tweets unlikely to contain political discussion, and extract all memes (@mentions, #hash_tags, and urls). They further isolate memes of interest by considering only those memes that have just undergone significant changes in volume, or those that account for a significant portion of the total volume (but perhaps haven't fluctuated very much). They insert these memes in the database, and use the Twitter API to get more information on each. A truthy meme relies on deceptive tactics to represent misinformation as fact. The Truthy system uses Truthy to refer to activities such as political smear campaigns, astroturfing, and other social pollution. ### Forests

<http://www.mdpi.com/journal/forests/>

Forests is an international and cross-disciplinary scholarly journal of forestry and forest ecology. It publishes reviews, regular research papers, communications and short notes, and there is no restriction on the length of the papers. Our aim is to encourage scientists to publish their experimental and theoretical research in as much detail as possible. Full experimental and/or methodical details must be provided for research articles. There are, in addition, unique features of this journal:

- * manuscripts regarding research proposals and research ideas will be particularly welcomed
- * computed data or files regarding the full details of the experimental procedure, if unable to be published in a normal way, can be deposited as supplementary material
- * manuscripts concerning summaries and surveys on research cooperation and projects (that are funded by national governments or others) provide information for a broad field of users.

ThinkUp - New Ideas Come From Conversations

<http://thinkupapp.com/>

ThinkUp lets you get insights from the time you spend on social networks like Twitter and Facebook. ThinkUp captures your posts, replies, retweets, friends, followers, and links on social networks like Twitter and Facebook. They will be adding more networks in the future. ThinkUp stores your social data in a database you control, and makes it easy to search, sort, filter, export, and visualize in useful ways. ThinkUp is an open source software project licensed under the GNU GPL, founded by Gina Trapani, sponsored by Expert Labs, used to help the White House, and built by an enthusiastic community of contributors like you. Features include: a) Archive all of your social data for your Twitter and Facebook accounts in your own database and make it easy to search, sort and filter; b) Export some or all of your data including tweets and status updates into a simple format you can open in any spreadsheet; c) View all of your friends' replies to your messages, in a simple searchable list or displayed on a Google Map; d) Check out insightful charts of key stats like your number of followers, posting behaviors, and more; e) Get a stream of all photos or links your friends have posted, all in one place. ThinkUp even automatically expands shortened URLs!; f) Sort replies to your tweets or Facebook status updates by the location of your friends who respond; g) Find out insights about your followers and friends, like who's most popular or who updates least often; h) Publish a complete list of replies to one of your questions, including integration with blogging tools like WordPress; and i) Even more new features every day. ## HTML5games.com - Largest Directory of HTML5 Games

<http://html5games.com/>

HTML5games.com is a big directory of online games created using HTML5- the new markup language revision that's in the process of being adopted around the world. The term HTML5 is used broadly to describe the combined power of HTML, JavaScript, CSS, WebGL, and other cool and promising web technologies still in their early stages. It has also been used in the gaming context to describe games that can be played without the Flash plugin. Many of the games that people incorrectly refer to as "browser games" and "web games" are actually HTML5 games. Virtually every online game is played in your "browser" and on the "web"- but not every game utilizes HTML5. Therefore, it's important to distinguish between any game that can literally be played in your browser, and those that are created with open HTML5 technologies (javascript, WebGL, no plugins or Flash, etc.) HTML5 is also set to become the foundation of the upcoming mobile gaming era. Although the specification is still in development and will continue to evolve, HTML5 has been progressing much faster than previously anticipated. It isn't supposed to be "officially" ratified for another 10 years, but millions of developers and web companies have already made the switch and many more are doing so every day. The benefits of HTML5 are as clear as day and with the support of the largest internet companies it will undoubtedly change online gaming for the better. ## Daileez - First Icon Online Diary and Private Diary and Online Journal

<http://www.daileez.com/>

Daileez is first icon diary & online journal that gives you a backwards glance at your life and the lives of others, in icons. Use what you experienced and “iconize” your day. Choose an icon that best describes your activity. If an icon isn't enough, you can add a detailed text description of your activity. Connect Daileez with your Facebook and Twitter accounts to send updates there as well. Have you ever wondered what you were doing on the same day last year? Daileez statistics gives you the ability to look back on your life. You'll find out how often you did your favourite activities, what other things you experienced, how was your mood, your emotions etc. Which month your mental activity peaked and which month you perhaps weren't thinking at all. There is a precise overview of all your daily activities and those of your Daileez friends in numbers as well as icons. What were your Daileez friends doing yesterday? What was the world doing? Daileez icons offer you interesting statistics that you might not have otherwise. For example, how well did people sleep last night? Did people between the ages of 20 - 29 travel more than those aged 40 - 49? Statistics are available not only from yesterday, but retroactively from any day since the start of Daileez! The EU-Black Sea Observatory's objective is to systematically monitor and analyse developments in the Black Sea region through policy research, media monitoring and other related activities. It will focus primarily on the EU's policies towards the wider Black Sea area and its relations with the countries of the region: Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia, Greece, Moldova, Russia, Turkey and Ukraine. Media monitoring is carried out through the systematic review of foreign press and policy publications. An output of this activity is the Black Sea News Update (BSNU). The BSNU is a fortnightly brief of political and economic developments covering the Black Sea region. Content freely accessible in PDF format.

Visualizing.org - Making Sense of Complex Issues Through Data and Design

<http://www.visualizing.org/>

Visualizing.org is a community of creative people working to make sense of complex issues through data and design... and it's a shared space and free resource to help you achieve this goal. By some estimates, we now create more data each year than in the entirety of prior human history. Data visualization helps us approach, interpret, and extract knowledge from this information. Over the last couple of years, we've seen government agencies, NGOs, and companies open up their data for the public to see and use. And we've seen data visualization figure more prominently in design curricula, conference programs, and the media. They created Visualizing.org because they want to help connect the proliferation of public data... with a community that can help us understand this data... with the general public.

Watch™ Paper Review

A Software Agent and Web Service Based System for Digital Preservation

by Xiaolong Jin, Jianmin Jiang, Geyong Min

<http://www.uic.edu/htbin/cgiwrap/bin/ojs/index.php/fm/article/view/3069>

Abstract:

Digital objects have extensively existed in daily work and life. Some of them often need to be kept accessible and usable for a relatively long period of time. Therefore, digital preservation has emerged as a pressing demand for the communities of archives, libraries, and publishers, and even for ordinary computer users. However, compared to traditional papery and magnetic preservation, digital preservation poses novel challenges to these communities. In this paper, we briefly introduce how the challenges are addressed in the PROTAGE system developed by integrating the widely adopted software agent and Web service technologies.
